THIS MATTER came before the Court upon plaintiff's ex parte motion to appoint a limited receiver. Plaintiff Mission Capital Works, Inc. ("MCW"), appeared through its attorneys, David Ebel and Colin Folawn of Schwabe, Williamson, & Wyatt, P.C. Defendants
SC Restaurants, Inc. ("SCR") and Brookes Sang appeared through their attorney L. Scott
McLanahan. No other defendants appeared. The Court, having considered the pleadings, court

1 records, and evidence submitted by plaintiff's counsel, finds as follows:

- 2 1. This Court has jurisdiction of this matter based on diversity of citizenship and 3 the amount in controversy. Plaintiff Mission Capital Works, Inc. ("MCW"), is 4 a corporation incorporated under the laws of the State of Washington having 5 its principal place of business in the State of Washington. Defendants are 6 individuals residing in the State of California or Oregon or corporations/LLCs
7 with principal places of business in the State of California. The plaintiff has 8 alleged damages, exclusive of interest and costs, that vastly exceed the sum
9 specified by 28 U.S.C. § 1332;
- 10 2. In addition, jurisdiction exists due to the existence of a federal question, as 11 plaintiff MCW brings this action, in part, under 15 U.S.C. § 78 and 18 U.S.C.
12 §§ 1961-1968;
- 13 3. Venue is proper in King County, Washington, as set forth in the promissory 14 note and merchant contract, copies of which were attached as Exhibit A to the 15 declaration of Damon Maletta;
- 16 4. This Court has equitable power to appoint a temporary limited receiver, and it
17 does so in accordance with the authority in FRCP 66, WDLR 66, 28 U.S.C. §
18 754, and 28 U.S.C. § 1651;
- 19 5. California attorney L. Scott McClanahan appeared telephonically on behalf of 20 defendants SCR and Brookes Sang. Brookes Sang was also present
21 telephonically;
- 22 6. Plaintiff made reasonable attempts to notify defendants Richard Sang, Richie
23 J.K. Sang, Brookes Sang, and SC Restaurants, Inc., of the hearing of 24 November 9, 2007;
- 25 7. As of October 31, 2007, Mission Capital Works, Inc. (MCW), has ~~a valid~~ ^{alleged a}
26 claim against defendants in the amount of $1,263,786.32 under the Merchant

Contract and Promissory Note;

8. Under the aforementioned agreements, MCW ^{claims entitlement} ~~is entitled~~ to an acceleration of the debt owed and has a security interest in all of defendant SCR's assets;
9. Plaintiff has provided evidence that SC Restaurants, Inc. (SCR), and personal guarantors Richard Sang, Richie J.K. Sang, and Brookes Sang ceased making regular payments on the first loan after September 2007, and no repayments were made on the second loan;
10. Plaintiff has provided evidence that upon receipt of the final loan installment, SCR changed its credit card processors without notifying MCW, at which point SCR ceased all payments to MCW;
11. Plaintiff has provided evidence that after receipt of the final loan installment, SCR, by and through its officers, employees, and constituents, ceased to return telephone calls and correspondence from MCW; and
12. Plaintiff has shown that appointment of a limited receiver is a reasonable method to investigate and preserve the status quo to ensure that there are assets to satisfy the claim in the above matter:
 - a. In the early 1990s, one of the guarantors, Richard Sang, plead guilty to making false statements in prior criminal proceedings relating to elaborate "bust-out" schemes where Sang defrauded lenders, skimmed money from restaurants, fraudulently misrepresented his business experience, fraudulently misrepresented the income of others, utilized numerous aliases, posed as a certified public accountant under an assumed name;
 - b. The evidence presented in the instant matter is ^{similar} ~~virtually identical~~ to the scheme previously employed by Richard Sang, and it is ~~imminently~~ reasonable to infer that prior notice of the appointing of a receiver would be likely to result in the disappearance of critical evidence or property;

c. The appointment of a limited receiver is reasonable and necessary to investigate the assets of defendants SC Restaurants, Inc., Richard Sang, Richie J.K. Sang, and Brookes Sang, and to preserve the status quo in order to prevent the destruction, hiding, or squandering of assets.

It is, therefore, hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED that plaintiff has provided evidence to the Court's satisfaction that a temporary limited receiver should be appointed, and the Court therefore GRANTS plaintiff's motion and appoints as temporary disinterested party limited receiver, Ed Hostmann, Inc., 4500 SW Kruse Way, Suite 100, Lake Oswego, Oregon, 97035 (503.968.6542), for the benefit of and to protect the rights of the plaintiff herein, with the usual powers of such Receiver, as set forth below; it is further

ORDERED that the Receiver has authority to investigate the assets of defendants SC Restaurants, Inc., as well as the assets of the signatories to the promissory note and merchant contract: Richard Sang, Richie J.K. Sang, and Brookes Sang. The Receiver is to take action to preserve the status quo, but the Receiver shall not to operate the business of SC Restaurants, Inc., nor shall the Receiver liquidate assets. By granting the Receiver authority to preserve the status quo, the Court intends that the Receiver is to monitor all expenditures and transfers of SC Restaurants, Inc., Richard Sang, Richie J.K. Sang, and Brookes Sang. SC Restaurants, Inc., Richard Sang, Richie J.K. Sang, and Brookes Sang must submit to the authority of the Receiver before making expenditures and transfers, and the Receiver is further authorized to approve or disapprove any expenditures or transfers of SC Restaurants, Inc., Richard Sang, Richie J.K. Sang, and Brookes Sang that the Receiver believes to be out of order; defendants SC Restaurants, Inc., Richard Sang, Richie J.K. Sang, and Brookes Sang shall not take any action contrary to the Receiver's disapproval of expenditures or transfers; it is further

3 is filed; it is further

4 ORDERED that defendants are hereby ordered to appear at a Show Cause Hearing
5 before the this Court on November 30, 2007 at 9:00 A.M. to show cause why this order
6 appointing the Temporary Receiver should not be confirmed and converted into a Permanent 7 Receiver. No later than November 28, 2007, the parties shall give notice to the Court and to 8 counsel of record of any testimony to be elicited at the Show Cause Hearing scheduled for 9 November 30, 2007. Discovery shall be permitted, and the parties are ordered to cooperate on 10 all discovery issues. If the parties are unable to resolve discovery disputes, the parties are to file

Case No. C 07-1807-TSZ
COMPLAINT

07-CV-01807-CMP

Plaintiff Mission Capital Works, Inc. (hereinafter "MCW"), a Washington
Corporation, alleges as follows:

I. PARTIES

1.1 Plaintiff MCW is a Washington corporation with its principal place of business in Seattle, King County, Washington.

1.2 Defendant SC Restaurants, Inc. (hereinafter "SCR") is a California corporation with its principal place of business in Palm Springs, California.

1.3 Defendant Richard Sang is a resident of Rancho Santa Fe, California.

1 1.4 Defendant Richard J.K. Sang ("Richie Sang") is a resident of Rancho Santa
2 Fe, California.

3 1.5 Defendant Brookes J.H. Sang is a resident of Rancho Santa Fe, California.

4 1.6 Defendant Sampson RB LLC is a California Limited Liability Company with 5 its principal place of business in Palm Springs, California.

6 1.7 Defendant Patricia Read is a resident of California.

7 1.8 Defendant George Leong, to the extent that he exists, is a resident of Portland,
8 Oregon.

9 1.9 Defendant Amber Sang a/k/a Amber Lao is a resident of Rancho Santa Fe,
10 California.

11 II. JURISDICTION

12 2.1 Jurisdiction is founded on diversity of citizenship and the amount in 13 controversy and upon the existence of a federal question.

14 2.2 Plaintiff MCW is a corporation incorporated under the laws of the State of 15 Washington having its principal place of business in the State of Washington. Defendants
16 are all individuals residing in the State of California or Oregon or corporations/LLCs with 17 principal places of business in the State of California. The matter in controversy exceeds,
18 exclusive of interest and costs, the sum specified by 28 U.S.C. § 1332.

19 2.3 The action also arises under U.S.C., Title 15, § 78; and U.S.C. Title 18, §§
20 1961 – 1968.

21 2.4 The parties contractually agreed to venue in this Court.

22 III. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

23 3.1 Plaintiff MCW is a financial lender.

24 3.2 In or about early March 2007, MCW was introduced to Richard Sang, Richie
25 Sang, Brookes Sang, and SCR through a mutual acquaintance.

26 3.3 Richard Sang represented himself to MCW as the President of SCR. He and

1 defendants SCR, Brookes Sang, and Richie Sang sought to borrow monies from MCW for 2 operating costs and for a new venture they were purportedly about to undertake.

3 3.4 Richard Sang represented himself to MCW's President, Damon Maletta
4 ("Maletta") as a restaurant legend who had owned over 100 restaurants.

5 3.5 In order to induce MCW into advancing and/or lending them monies,
6 defendants SCR, Richard Sang, Richie Sang, and Brookes Sang made numerous other
7 representations to MCW about their excellent and stable financial condition, extensive
8 background owning restaurants, and their current business operations.

9 3.6 MCW relied on the representations and ultimately entered into two contracts
10 with these defendants whereby MCW provided defendants $1,635,000 in exchange for a 11 promise to repay the principal amount advanced plus interest.

12 3.7 The first representation to MCW by SCR and the Sang defendants related to 13 the defendants' financial backgrounds. Richard Sang promised Maletta and MCW that 14 defendants' Oregon CPA, George Leong, would provide MCW with all of the financial 15 information needed to support the Merchant Applications for SCR and the Sangs.

16 3.8 On defendant Richard Sang's instruction, Cassandra Buss, MCW's Vice-
17 President of Operations, telephoned the number for George Leong (hereinafter "Leong")
18 provided to Mr. Maletta by Mr. Sang. She telephoned Leong in early March 2007, before 19 any agreement to lend monies was reached.

20 3.9 Leong told Ms. Buss that he was the CPA for SCR and the Sang defendants.

21 3.10 Leong told Ms. Buss that the financial condition of SCR and the Sang 22 defendants was excellent.

23 3.11 On information and belief, Leong provided fake tax returns and several pages
24 of fake financial reporting to Ms. Buss.

25 3.12 Leong represented to Ms. Buss that Richard Sang, the purported President of 26 SCR and one of the proposed personal guarantors, had annual income of six or seven million

1 dollars from a royalty contract with the buyers of his restaurant chain, The Lyons.

2 3.13 The tax returns that Mr. Leong provided MCW purported to be the 2004 and 3 2005 U.S. Corporation Tax Returns for SCR (the "tax returns") prepared by Mr. Leong and 4 submitted to the Internal Revenue Service.

5 3.14 For the year 2004, the following significant figures are represented on the
6 SCR tax return provided to MCW by George Leong: gross receipts of $11,605,730; gross
7 profit of $7,665,174; total income of $7,665,174; total corporate assets of $2,760,400.

8 3.15 For the year 2005, the following significant figures are represented on the 9 SCR tax return provided to MCW by George Leong: gross receipts of $23,845,667; gross
10 profit of $18,418,870; total income of $18,418,870; total corporate assets of $18,550,000.

11 3.16 Leong provided an SCR financial balance sheet showing similar assets and 12 income.

13 3.17 MCW relied on the representations of Leong and the documents he provided.

14 3.18 Upon information and belief, the tax returns and financial documents
15 provided by George Leong are fakes.

16 3.19 Upon information and belief, George Leong does not exist.

17 3.20 Upon information and belief, there is no Oregon CPA by the name of George 18 Leong.

19 3.21 Upon information and belief, the man who spoke with Ms. Buss and provided
20 SCR's background information was actually Richard Sang posing as George Leong.

21 3.22 Upon information and belief, George Leong is one of defendant Richard 22 Sang's aliases.

23 3.23 MCW did not know, or have reason to know, that George Leong was a false
24 identity until late October 2007.

25 3.24 In March 2007, before any monies were advanced by MCW, defendants

13 3.30 Richard Sang told Maletta that he was owed $1.3 million from individual 14 debtors.

15 3.31 Richard Sang gave Maletta a tour of his home, which included an in-home
16 movie theater.

17 3.32 Richard Sang showed Maletta a DVD that toured SCR's numerous award-
18 winning restaurants.

19 3.33 Richard Sang represented to Maletta that the SCR-owned restaurants,
20 including the Stockton Mallards, were doing extremely well financially.

21 3.34 Richard Sang represented to Maletta that the Sang defendants and SCR were 22 about to undertake a new venture through the Modesto Mallard's and Sampson RB LLC, that 23 would net millions in profits.

24 3.35 Defendants Sang at no time informed Maletta that the Mallard's Restaurant in 25 Stockton was in jeopardy of closing. They represented just the opposite.

26 3.36 Richard Sang did not disclose to Maletta that he had a prior federal criminal

1 conviction for wire fraud (18 U.S.C. §1343), bank fraud (18 U.S.C. §1344) and false
2 statements (18 U.S.C. §1014) in the State of Washington in connection with his prior
3 restaurant ownership and fraudulent borrowing of monies.

4 3.37 Richard Sang did not disclose to Maletta that his prior fraudulent scheme
5 included the use of an alias to pose as his own accountant and to present fake financial 6 background information to lenders in order to induce them into lending him monies.

7 3.38 MCW was not aware of defendants' omissions, nor did it know or have reason
8 to know that the materials provided by defendants Sang and/or George Leong were fake.

9 3.39 MCW reasonably relied upon the due diligence materials provided by CPA
10 Leong and the representations made by defendants Sang.

11 3.40 MCW and defendants SCR, Richard Sang, Richie Sang, and Brookes Sang 12 began negotiations for a lending relationship in early March 2007.

13 3.41 MCW ultimately entered into two separate contracts with SCR and the Sang 14 defendants, each representing a separate debt owed by defendants SCR and the Sangs to 15 MCW.

16 3.42 The first contract is the Merchant Contract that was entered into in March,
17 2007. The Merchant Contract contains multiple addenda that represent additional debt under 18 the Merchant Contract.

19 3.43 Under the express terms of the Merchant Contract and addenda, MCW
20 purchased 15% of SCR's daily credit card collections for its Stockton and Modesto Mallard's
21 restaurants, and SCR assigned and transferred its daily credit card collections to MCW for 22 purposes of daily collection until SCR re-paid the principal in full. The Merchant Contract
23 granted MCW a security interest in all of the assets of SCR. The daily credit card collections
24 were to be direct deposited into MCW's bank account through the parties' mutually agreed
25 credit card processor.

26 3.44 In sum, MCW advanced $975,000 to SCR pursuant to the Merchant Contract.

1 between March 2007 and July 2007. The Merchant Contract debt was personally guaranteed
2 by defendants Richard Sang, Richie Sang, and Brookes Sang. The advances were as follows:
3 $250,000 in March 2007, $100,000 in April 2007, $250,000 in May 2007, $300,000 in June 4 2007, and $75,000 in July 2007.

5 3.45 At the direction of defendants Sang, $675,000 of the advancements were 6 made directly to SCR and $300,000 were made to its related entity Sampson RB LLC.

7 3.46 Under the terms of the Merchant Contract, any failure by SCR to transfer the 8 daily credit card collections to MCW was an event of default causing the entire principal to 9 be immediately due and owing.

10 3.47 SCR complied with its obligation to pay the owed daily credit card collections
11 to MCW during the months March to September 2007.

12 3.48 On or about September 19, 2007, defendant Richie Sang contacted MCW and 13 requested a one-week reprieve from MCW deducting daily credit card collections. MCW
14 granted the requested one-week reprieve.

15 3.49 During the one-week reprieve, defendant SCR and defendants Sang changed
16 credit card processors for the Stockton and Modesto Mallard's restaurants, nullifying
17 MCW's ability to collect the agreed daily credit card collections. The action by defendants 18 constituted a material breach of the parties' Merchant Contract and addenda.

19 3.50 SCR stopped paying the daily owed credit card collections on or about 20 September 19, 2007.

21 3.51 Defendants Sang and SCR ceased returning telephone calls and 22 communications from MCW at this time.

23 3.52 Defendants closed the Mallard's restaurant in Stockton in October 2007
24 without any notice to MCW.

25 3.53 Defendants have not paid MCW any of the principal owed on the Merchant
26 Contract.

1 3.54 SCR and the Sang defendants owe MCW $574,984.68 on the Merchant
2 Contract through October 31, 2007.

3 3.55 The second contract is supported by a Promissory Note that was entered into
4 in July 2007 between MCW and defendants SCR, Richard Sang, Richie Sang, and Brookes
5 Sang.

6 3.56 Between July 2007 and September 2007, while defendants were still
7 complying with the terms of the Merchant Contract, SCR and the Sang defendants solicited
8 MCW to loan them additional monies for a new venture they were undertaking. MCW
9 loaned SCR $660,000 pursuant to the subsequent agreement and Promissory Note.

10 3.57 The Promissory Note debt obligation was personally guaranteed by Richard 11 Sang, Richie Sang, and Brookes Sang.

12 3.58 The payments to SCR or recipients identified by SCR pursuant to the 13 Promissory Note were as follows: $215,000 in July 2007, $310,000 in August 2007, and 14 $135,000 in September 2007.

15 3.59 At the direction of defendant SCR, $380,000 of these loan payments were 16 made to SCR, $100,000 were made to its related entity Sampson RB LLC, and $180,000
17 were made to Patricia Road.

18 3.60 The parties expressly agreed that the rate of interest on the unpaid principal
19 balance of the Promissory Note was to be 20% per annum and was to accrue from July 13, 20 2007 until all principal is paid in full.

21 3.61 The Promissory Note expressly required SCR to make monthly interest
22 payments to MCW commencing on July 31, 2007.

23 3.62 SCR never made a single monthly interest payment as required of them under 24 the Promissory Note. This failure constitutes a default on the Promissory Note.

25 3.63 MCW has made demands for the monthly interest payments.

1 within 48 hours after receipt of the final Promissory Note installment ($135,000) from MCW
2 in September 2007. It was also during this 48-hour period that defendants SCR and the 3 Sangs violated the terms of the Merchant Contract with MCW by wrongfully eliminating 4 MCW's ability to make the daily credit card collections on the Modesto and Stockton
5 Mallards' restaurants.

6 3.65 SCR closed its restaurant Mallard's in Stockton shortly thereafter without any 7 notice or communication to MCW.

8 3.66 Upon information and belief, SCR and the Sang defendants intentionally
9 caused the Mallard's in Stockton to fail, did not pay employment or operating or property
10 taxes or rent, and skimmed monies from the restaurant until it could be abruptly closed and 11 defendant could leave with the wrongfully retained monies.

12 3.67 Per the terms of the Promissory Note, the entire principal is due and owing.

13 3.68 SCR and the Sang defendants owe MCW $688,801.44 on the Promissory Note
14 as of October 31, 2007.

15 3.69 Defendant Richard Sang has a criminal history of defrauding lenders and 16 investors in a fashion that is nearly identical to the scheme he perpetrated against MCW.

17 3.70 The prior charges, to which Richard Sang plead guilty to before the United 18 States District Court for the Western District of Washington in 1991, include allegations that 19 he: a) presented fake tax returns to investors and lenders; b) posed as his own CPA, by the 20 name of William Chinn, in making false representations to investors and lenders; c) opened 21 numerous restaurants under the names of aliases or duped investors and skimmed monies
22 from those restaurants until they had to close and creditors were left with no recourse; d)
23 would not pay any employment or operating taxes on his business until they closed; and e)

10 4.2 Defendants SCR, Richard Sang, Richie Sang, and Brookes Sang used
11 interstate telephones and interstate wires to employ a scheme to defraud MCW.

12 4.3 Defendants SCR, Richard Sang, Richie Sang, and Brookes Sang, in 13 connection with the offer and sale of securities, also made untrue statements of material fact 14 and omitted to state material facts necessary in order to make the statements made, in light of 15 the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading.

16 4.4 Defendants SCR, Richard Sang, Richie Sang, and Brookes Sang operated
